WARWICK, THE EAST GATE

LL6785

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The East Gate. Above the East Gate at Warwick stood a chapel of St. Peter, erected in the reign of Henry VI. At the end of the eighteenth century both the gateway and its superstructure were ruthlessly restored, and so lost some of their antique beauty.

(For Address Only.)

Printed in England.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7406. "WARWICK."
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

C TPA12.9

WARWICK. THE EAST GATE

LL6385

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The East Gate. Above the East Gate at Warwick stood a chapel of St. Peter, erected in the reign of Henry VI. At the end of the eighteenth century both the gateway and its superstructure were ruthlessly restored, and so lost some of their antique beauty. Tudor house, with lamp.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

"WARWICK." [Regd.] Postcard 7406.
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE".
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Printed in England.

C7 P2 12 9